Minimal White

Marble designs are smooth and minimal with classic, clean white colours, adding sleek sophistication to smaller surfaces and tabletop accessories. Sculptural forms offer areas of high contrast and shadow, creating impactful table and lighting designs, while for decorative accessories, designers play with curved lines, ribbed surfaces and ergonomic shapes that fit invitingly in the hand.

Tonal Grains

Delicate grey-grained marbles bring texture to homeware designs, enhancing the classic gravitas of marble. Lighting designs contrast grained textures with matte opaque plastics and plain leathers, heightening textural contrasts.

Designers alternate sharp edges with smoothed curves, echoing the intricacy of marbled patterns. Forms are left simple with an emphasis on block geometry, bringing focus to the natural beauty of the material.
